ELECTION CIVILITY STATEMENT FROM THE CITY OF JACKSON HUMAN RELATIONS COMMISSION

The City of Jackson Human Relations Commission is calling on the Jackson community to show civility during the Nov. 3 General Election. A statement on election civility was confirmed at the commission's meeting on Wednesday, Oct. 21. This is the full statement:

“The City of Jackson Human Relations Commission believes in a free and fair election process. We acknowledge the dignity of every person and their right to participate. We urge everyone to conduct themselves peacefully and respectfully at the polls. This is your opportunity to select who will represent your community at the city, state, and federal levels. Voting is not only your right; make it your responsibility!”
